

COM 2230. Professional Development (I, II; 1)

The course covers professional ethics, etiquette, and dress. Students learn job search strategies, networking skills, and interview techniques. They learn how to write a cover letter and resume. They also learn how to research graduate schools, prepare for the graduate record exam, and apply to graduate school.